From the Principal:

Dear Midland Mustang Families,

October is Bullying Prevention Month. At Midland, we continue to work with students about making good friendship choices. To highlight how we want students to get along, this week is Kindness Week! We will be having daily challenges to be kind, along with classroom discussions about kindness. To help us celebrate Kindness Week, we will have 3 dress up days:

Monday, 10/23 is "Ride Kindness Like a Wave" Day- dress in Beach Attire.

Wednesday, 10/25 is "Powered by Kindness" Day- dress like a Super Hero.

Friday, 10/27 is "Kindness Rocks"- dress as a Rock Star.

These dress up days will be a fun way to recognize kindness. Like all dress up days, we ask students to use good judgement in dressing up. This can also be a good week to discuss kindness at home, and how family members can be kind to each other.

Have a great and kind week!

Mrs. Dawson

MIDLAND MANNERS

Word: Honorable – When you are honorable, you tell the truth and people can count on you.

Thought: The time is always right to do what is right. Martin Luther King Jr.

Discussion: Your best friend purposely makes a mess in the school bathroom. He or she tells you about it. What will you do?
